25X1

1. The Minister of Railways, in conjunction with the Minister of Mining, has established the post of special representative of the P.K.P. (Polskie Koleje Państwowe, - Polish State Railroads), in Silesian railway stations which serve coal mines. These men are charged with improving the routing of transports of coal, coke, and briquettes. In effect, their task is that of controller over heads of railway stations and train dispatchers. These representatives first started their work in the Katowice D.O.K.P., (Dyrekcja Okręgowa Kolei Państwowych - State Railways District Board) but are now attached also to railway stations in other P.K.P. regions in Silesia.
2. No passenger trains will run to the Hel railway station this summer; the terminal station will be Jastarnia (Putziger-Heisternest-Q55/Y46). No passenger ships will ply between Gdynia and Hel during the summer season.
